Description

Babes can enjoy a bit of baseball today (the Mets duke it out with the Chicago Cubs) while mastering their needlepoint skills. Okay, okay, the pairing does sound a bit odd—jocks don't exactly evoke thoughts of knitted socks—but it's a fun way to learn a new craft with your family. Little fingers may have some trouble perfecting the "knit 1, perl 1" technique, so experts will be on hand to teach babes how it's done. By the ninth inning, kids will come away from the game with something besides a stomachache from too much cotton candy. All ages.
