Stitch 'N Pitch hits new numbers

Knitters held their own last night, but the Reno Aces snuck past the Portland Beavers 8-6 at the annual Stitch 'N Pitch at PGE Park.

The fab organizers of this year's Portland event -- Amy, Mary and Amanda -- had door prizes as an extra treat for baseball/yarn fans who showed up among the crowd of 7,201 at PGE Park Thursday night.

"It was really a great evening," Amanda messaged this morning. "We received 19 chemo caps at the game (which is more than triple the number from last year!), so a big thanks goes out to all the knitters and crocheters who are so giving of their time and yarn and talent. PGE Park said they sold right at 100 Stitch 'n' Pitch tickets for the game (which is more than twice last year's attendance). And we had eight fabulous local sponsors who very generously donated some amazing door prizes which we gave away during the 7th inning stretch:

"Our knitters did wind up sitting in two separate sections, which wasn't quite what we'd intended. but it seemed like everyone still had a great time and lots of fun."
