Stitch 'n Pitch

July 20, 2009 · Leave a Comment

Yesterday was the Fourth Annual Stitch 'n Pitch at PNC Park. Mixed among diehard fans in section 130 were a number of women knitting and crocheting in public. In addition to our little swag bag of knitting goodies, we enjoyed a nice July afternoon in the beautiful park where we watched (or forgot to watch) the Pirates play the San Francisco Giants. I started a baby sweater for some friends in the Bay Area who are expecting their first baby next month. How appropriate, then, that the Giants won 4 to 3.
